

Dianne Williams transcript

Co-Workers

It was a good experience. It makes you stronger. It makes your character stronger, when you know what you have to deal with and you know how they feel and you know what to expect out of them. It makes you a stronger person. And it probably helped to shape how, where you want to go and what role you want to take with the Postal Service.

Co-Workers

There were also men that felt like well I'm going to help you. And is that too heavy? Well just hold up, I'll help you. And there were some who didn't care how the others felt. They still looked at you as a female and they didn't want you to lift anything too heavy, push anything too heavy. They still had the generosity well this is a female working with me and I'm going to help her. So yes, you had men like that.
