Weddings are limited to four per calendar year and not more than one per month and only on Saturdays.

Cash bars are allowed at events as long as the vendor has the appropriate licenses.

The following policies have been instituted to preserve and protect the spaces and collections. The Smithsonian special events coordinator assigned to an event is responsible for ensuring these rules are followed.

Prohibited Activities

The following activities are prohibited at all rentals at the Smithsonian:

- a. Political activities, including solicitations for candidates; campaign kick offs, or other activities directed toward the success or failure of a partisan candidate, political party, or partisan political group;

Reservations

A prospective licensee may place a maximum of 2 dates on hold on the calendar. An application must be submitted and approved before the dates can be held. Once the application has been approved, the prospective licensee then has 10 business days to move to contract or site visit. At the conclusion of that time, if a contract is not already in progress, the dates will automatically be released. Once the licensee receives the contract, the signed contract is due back to the Office of Special Events and Protocol in 15 business days. In the event we receive another inquiry for the same date(s), the client will be given first right of refusal and be given 72 hours to return a signed contract. After 72 hours the hold will be released.
